REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Fees

Standard Fee. The standard fee to register for the 33rd Underwater Mining Institute is US$350, if prepaid by August 15, 2003. This fee covers welcoming reception and registration, technical sessions, UMI banquet, and 2004 membership to the International Marine Minerals Society, a non-profit professional organization promoting interchange between government, academic, and industry expertise on marine minerals interests.

Single Day Fee. The single-day fee is US$250, if prepaid by August 15, 2002.

Student Fee. The student fee is US$75. This includes the welcoming reception and registration, both technical sessions, and the UMI banquet. Students must provide verification of student status and be willing to assist during the conference, if needed.

Late Registration Fee. A late fee of US$25 will be added to registrations received after August 15, 2003.

Banquet Fee. The banquet will be held at the Hyatt Regency Jeju and will feature Ambassador Satya Nandan, Secretary-General of the International Seabed Authority as our distinguished guest speaker. Also offered will be exquisite Korean fare and entertainment. The cost for the banquet is included in the Standard Fee. However, if you are a single-day registrant or if you would like to bring a guest to the banquet, please provide an additional US$45 to the registration form.

Geotechnical Field Tour. This optional feature of the UMI includes visits to Korean geotechnical and cultural interests on Jeju Island. The cost of US$45 covers surface transportation, lunch, and applicable admission fees. Return to Jeju Hotel Hana will be made nightly.
